- Director of Marketing & Promotion Theo Hall
- Director of Basketball Operations Dontay Harris

About the staff:

IBL Commissioner Mikal Duilio--"Christian is very conscientious about his associations and has done extremely well putting together a great base to start his venture. Theo Hall is an experienced promoter. Dontay Harris knows Tacoma, knows basketball and knows minor league systems and how they work. Chris Mosely was unofficially voted but widely recognized as the IBL coach of the year in 2005 for taking the then Tacoma Thunder team to a first place finish in the Western division of the IBL on one of the league's tiniest budgets. Chris Hyppa is well recognized in Tacoma for his playing days but also as a current head varsity coach for Stadium High School.

Chris Mosely Chris Hyppa

The first four sponsors:

The sponsors that have stepped up first are Wired Energy Drink, Urban Allure (an entertainment company), Famm (another company in the entertainment genre) and SouthSoundBasketball.Com—a new adult recreational basketball league starting play in January. Christian and his staff will continue to pursue sponsorships in January.

Tacoma Jets focus:

A key feature about the 2007 Tacoma Jets is that they will be run as a non-profit organization and will do tremendous work within the community—specifically offering free youth basketball clinics and speaking engagements at Tacoma area schools.

More information about the team, tryouts, game day venue and business partners will be available in subsequent news releases.

About the IBL

Two unique features distinguish the IBL from other professional basketball leagues:

1. An entertaining game. By allowing only one timeout per quarter, and reducing the time between plays with an immediate inbounds policy, IBL games are always fast and entertaining. IBL teams average 127 points per contest; just as important—games last only two hours.

2. Extremely low travel costs. The IBL promises a maximum of one trip per season requiring air travel. This 'one flight guarantee' that teams enjoy promotes financial health and longevity for IBL teams. In fact, all 17 teams completed the first IBL season (the 2005 season); as well, all 24 teams completed the 2006 season.

The IBL is now heading into the third year of play.
