ELKHART CRUISES PAST EDMONTON

Elkhart, IN - The Elkhart Express gave a cold welcome to the visiting Edmonton Chill on Saturday, handing Edmonton its most lopsided defeat of the season. The Express took control early, and prevailed by the score of 150-90.

Will Whittington continued his recent hot shooting streak, leading the Express with a 29 point outing—including nine three-pointers. Cedric Moodie added six treys en route to 28 points for the Express. J.R. Patrick paced the Chill with 14 points in the loss.
