SLAM BOUNCE BACK WITH WIN OVER CHINOOKS

Portland, OR - The Bellingham Slam protected their first place position in the IBL's West Division with the win over the Chinooks at Warner Pacific College on Sunday. It was a bounce back victory for the Slam, who saw their 12 game winning streak snapped in their previous outing against Vancouver.

Tyler Amaya led the way for Bellingham, scoring a game-high 40 points to go along with eight rebounds and eight assists. Kenny Tate was equally stellar in the loss--recording 34 points and dishing out 14 assists for the Chinooks.
